How To Be A Friend An Ancient Guide To True Friendship
The novel opens with Aunt Polly screeching the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. He has not had his supper, and he has a great many stories to tell about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly observes that Tom has been skipping school that afternoon and has borrowed his姐's clothes for the concert dance. Tom's half-brother Sid is also there, and Tom boasts about his heroism in defending Pig-Pen. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house to find Tom. Tom returns with a bag of tobacco. He is waiting for Aunt Polly to start shouting. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival Elizabeth Gump's parents pass by. Tom is attracted by Elizabeth. Tom and Aunt Polly have a heated argument and eventually choose the newcomer as the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his soiled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of necklace. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
